Problem

51. READING

A. Read the newsletter. Then read the sentences. Write J if the sentence is about Jessica. Write A if the sentence is about Allison. Write JA if the sentence is about Jessica and Allison.

MEET YOUR NEIGHBORS

Meet Jessica and Allison Parker. They're sisters, but they're very different. Jessica is an artist. She likes things with colors. Her clothes have a lot of red, yellow, and orange. Jessica likes to go to plays and parties with her friends.

Allison is a banker. She has a lot of black, blue, and gray suits for her job. There aren't a lot of colors in her house. On weekends, Allison likes to go to the park or a museum, and at night she goes to a movie or a concert.

On Sunday mornings, the sisters meet at a restaurant to have breakfast together. They're different, but they are good friends.

Example: She likes blue and black clothes. A

- (1) She likes the park and the movies. _____
- (2) She likes a lot of colors. _____
- (3) She goes to a restaurant on Sundays. _____
- (4) She works in a bank. _____
- (5) She is different from her sister. _____

B. Read the article again. Then answer the questions.
