FROM: Rick Barton
TO: Sarah Jones
SUBJECT: A friend in Japan?
SENT: 9:17 a.m.

The body of the email contains the following text:

Dear Sarah,

Well, how is Tokyo? Are you studying hard? Do you have any free time? Can you take any vacations?

I talked to my aunt, and she knows a woman there. Her name is Keiko Noguchi. Keiko lived in New York for two years and studied art history. Now she's back in Japan. She's from Kyoto, but she's living in Tokyo. She's studying at a university there, and she works part-time at a museum. Anyway, I bet Keiko's English is pretty good.

My aunt sent an email to Keiko, so Keiko knows you're in Japan. You can email her at knoguchi1132@cup.org. Keiko wants you to go to Kyoto with her. Kyoto is famous for its gardens and historic temples. And she says you can go and see a traditional show together. She saw a show there last week. She can tell you about it.

Anyway, everybody misses you! And I think about you all the time. Please email me soon!

Rick

N Read the poster about a food fair in a school. Then circle True or False for each sentence.

Come to the
Worldwide Food Fair

In the Student Center today (Friday)

Do you like to try new foods? Do you want to help your school? Now you can do both! Don't buy your lunch in the cafeteria today. Come to the Student Center, and take an eating tour of foods from around the world.

You can enjoy delicious food from many different countries! Students in the International Club are making dishes like spicy Mexican seafood, hot Italian pizza, and Vietnamese rice with vegetables. Or try wonderful desserts like mango ice cream and sweet, sticky rice. Even picky eaters can find something good.

The money from each sale at the Worldwide Food Fair goes to help buy new computers for our club. And prices are low! It's "all you can eat" for $7. Or you can buy a snack for just $3.

Come and join us for fun and food: 11:30 a.m.–1:00 p.m.
