

UNITS 6-10 ■ Review Test 2

Name _____

Listening A

🔊 Listen to the advertisement. Read the sentences. Then listen again and circle the letter of the answer that correctly completes each sentence.

Example: This advertisement is for _____.

- ☒ a. a karate school
- ☐ b. a class for parents
- ☐ c. a home-study course

1. The announcer in the advertisement is speaking to _____.
 - a. children who want to have a hobby
 - b. parents who want to have a hobby
 - c. parents who want their children to shape up
2. The advertisement describes the problem of _____.
 - a. parents who expect their kids to obey too many rules
 - b. children who refuse to follow rules
 - c. parents who let their kids do anything they want
3. The advertisement implies that karate helps children become less _____.
 - a. obedient
 - b. respectful
 - c. dependent
4. The advertisement describes how today, more and more _____.
 - a. parents are being too lenient
 - b. kids are being spoiled
 - c. kids are rude to adults and refuse to follow their rules
5. The advertisement recommends that parents of children who act up should _____.
 - a. enroll their kids in the karate class
 - b. be less strict
 - c. not be so overprotective

6. The advertisement states that in the karate class, kids will be able to work out their
 a. friendly and loving tendencies
 b. violent feelings
 c. easygoing natures
7. The advertisement promises growth that is
 a. physical but not emotional or spiritual
 b. emotional and spiritual but not physical
 c. physical, emotional, and spiritual

Listening B

🔊 Listen to the conversation. Read the questions. Then listen again and circle the letter of the correct answer.

Example: The man and woman are talking about (a.) shopping b. the economy c. scary stories

8. The woman's problem is that she
 a. cannot find any deals b. spends too much money c. is worried about the economy
9. The woman sticking to a budget.
 a. is not capable of b. succeeded in c. is tired of 10. The woman describes herself as
 a. a bargain-hunter b. a comparison shopper c. an impulse buyer 11. It is difficult for the woman to
 a. splurge b. resist temptation c. go overboard 12. The man advises the woman to
 a. go window-shopping b. not go out c. not carry credit cards

Complete each sentence by writing the words in parentheses in the correct order.

Example: Would you give me a few of those big round sugar cookies?
 (round / sugar / big)

13. She opened the window and gazed out at the sky.
 (morning / clear / blue)
14. In the shed, there were motorcycles.
 (antique / British / two)

Circle the letter of the answer that correctly completes each sentence.

Example: "Oh, what cute kittens! They're so _____!"

- a. aggressive b. costly c. adorable

15. "I'd like a pet, but I don't have much spare time or money. Something _____ would be great."
a. low-maintenance b. costly c. good-natured
16. "I don't have any money, but I feel like going out. Do you want to go _____ downtown?"
a. bargain-hunting b. shopping c. window-shopping
17. "Jill's parents always let her do anything she wanted. They were too _____ with her."
a. lenient b. overprotective c. strict
18. "There are many stories about a lost city under the Atlantic, but with no evidence none are _____."
a. questionable b. unsolvable c. provable
19. "I can't wait to try skydiving again. _____."
a. It gets on my nerves b. It scares the life out of me c. There's nothing like it 20. "Have you ever tried _____ yoga?"
a. doing b. playing c. making
21. "Do you _____ any hobbies?"
a. do b. have c. practice

Complete each sentence by using the noun form of the correct verb or adjective from the box. You will not use all of the words.

fair	possible	difficult
explain	mobile	different
develop	attract	strict

Example: "Sally's friends couldn't understand her attraction to Mike, because they thought he was rude and vain."

22. "We never expected to have such _____ deciding what to do on the weekend."
23. "He always appreciated his parents' _____; they never treated one child better than the others."
24. "Historians don't have a good _____ for why the city was destroyed."
25. "I can't see much _____ between this dog and that one—they look almost exactly the same."

Complete each sentence with a phrase from the box. You will use one phrase more than once.

might (not) be should (not) be must (not) be (do not) have to be

Example: "Parents of young children sometimes think that sweets and soft drinks shouldn't be sold in schools."

26. "We are not advising, we are insisting: Cosmetics _____ tested on animals!"
27. "Maybe you should take your guitar this weekend; you _____ asked to play a few songs."
28. "Dolphins are so intelligent that some people believe they _____ trained to do sea rescues."
29. "Most animals _____ taught to swim; they can just do it naturally."

Complete each sentence by circling the correct word or phrase in parentheses and writing the correct form of be.

Example: "Writers (like / can't stand) their books to be read by lots of people."

30. "I'm very busy, and I (resent / appreciate) _____ bothered at home by people trying to sell me things."
31. "Mina was very unhappy. She didn't (resent / appreciate) _____ asked to clean up everyone else's mess."

Circle the letter of the answer that correctly completes each sentence.

Example: "People are waiting _____ to get married."

- a. long and long b. long and longer c. longer and longer

32. "The more I think about the exam, _____ nervous I feel."

- a. more b. more and more c. the more

33. "These stones _____ have been made by humans; there is no other explanation."

- a. might b. should c. must

34. "When Jason called Tuesday morning, he said the drawings _____ done by that afternoon."

- a. will be b. would be c. have to

35. "These footprints are very large. They _____ have been made by a bear or they could have been made by a lion."

- a. had to b. couldn't c. might

36. "A cure for that disease _____ be discovered through animal testing. We won't know if we don't try."

- a. could b. must c. can't

Complete each sentence in your own way. Use a double comparative.

Example: The bigger the car, the more gasoline it uses.

37. The larger the world's population grows, _____.

38. The better your education, _____.

39. The longer you live, _____.

Complete each sentence in your own way.

Example: I can't get enough of going rock climbing.

40. You'd have to be out of your mind to _____.

41. I can't wait to _____.

42. There's not a chance _____.

Read the fable. Then read it again and check true or false.

The Tortoise and the Eagle

Tortoise and Eagle had never met, as Eagle lived high in a tree and Tortoise lived on the ground. One day, however, Eagle heard how kind Tortoise was and decided to go visit him. Tortoise invited Eagle to stay for dinner. Eagle sat for several hours, eating the delicious food and admiring Tortoise's charming home. Eagle enjoyed the meal so much that he came back again and again. Each time he would eat as much as he could.

Eagle's visits made life hard for Tortoise. It was expensive to buy enough food to feed such a large bird. Also, Eagle was very messy, especially when eating. One day he even broke Tortoise's lamp and chair with his large, clumsy wings. It would take Tortoise a long time to clean up after each visit.

However, Eagle didn't care about the difficulties he was causing. "Ha! I've eaten Tortoise's food, but he can never reach my tree to share mine!" he laughed proudly. One day Frog overheard this. He went to Tortoise and said, "You're too good-natured. Eagle is taking advantage of you." Then Frog told him what to do.

On Eagle's next visit, Tortoise said, "Please, friend, let me give you a pot of food to take home." Eagle accepted the gift and waited while Tortoise went into the kitchen. Tortoise hid inside a pot and called out, "Here's your food." Eagle grabbed the pot and flew to his home in the trees. But when he looked into the pot he was surprised to find only Tortoise. "Hello," said Tortoise. "I thought it'd be a nice change to visit your home. I look forward to sharing a meal with you."

Eagle became angry and said, "You will be the only meal here, Tortoise!" He tried to eat Tortoise but hurt his beak on Tortoise's hard shell. "I see what kind of friend you are, Eagle. Take me home," said Tortoise. "I'll drop you to the ground and smash you to pieces," screamed Eagle, and flew off with Tortoise in his claws. However, Tortoise grabbed onto Eagle's leg. "Please let go!" Eagle begged, trying to shake him off. "Only after you bring me home," Tortoise replied. Eagle had no choice but to comply. Once safely home, Tortoise turned and said, "A friend must be willing to give as well as receive. You're not welcome here anymore." Then he went inside, leaving Eagle to think about his selfishness.

	true	false
Example: The story is a fable about friendship.	☒	☐
43. Because Eagle was affectionate, he enjoyed visiting Tortoise.	☐	☐
44. Tortoise was generous to invite Eagle to eat dinner with him.	☐	☐
45. Eagle thought that Tortoise's home was charming.	☐	☐
46. Eagle was a low-maintenance guest.	☐	☐
47. Tortoise was mean to Eagle.	☐	☐
48. Preparing dinner for Eagle was costly.	☐	☐
49. Because of his large size, Eagle was destructive to Tortoise's furniture.	☐	☐
50. When Eagle laughed at Tortoise for giving him so many free meals, it showed that he was devoted.	☐	☐
51. Frog showed that he was gullible when he told Tortoise how to trick Eagle.	☐	☐
52. When Eagle discovered Tortoise in the pot, he became aggressive.	☐	☐
53. Tortoise was not being sincere when he said that a friend must give as well as receive.	☐	☐
54. Eagle cared only about himself and not about others.	☐	☐

Choose two of the following topics to write about. Write a paragraph of at least four to five sentences for each topic.

- In your opinion, should animals be kept in zoos or trained to perform in circuses?
- Some people buy on impulse while others shop around and bargain-hunt before making a purchase. What kind of shopper are you?
- Do you think family life has changed in any way in your lifetime? If so, how? Has the change been positive or negative?
- Describe an unsolved mystery, either a famous one or one from your own life. Explain what is known to have happened and what may or may not have happened.
- Agree or disagree with this statement: “Technology is making our lives easier and better by giving us more free time for hobbies and leisure activities.” Talk about your own life and your own activities.

55–57. _____

58–60. _____

